

Forevermore

Lyrics by Stewart Fenters, Ella Porter

Is there a story
That's ever been told
Where a king steps off his throne
To live with the lowest
The poor and the needy
And moves into our neighborhood

Who could imagine
The word from the start
Now has to learn how to speak
The babe in the manger
So helpless and small
He is the almighty King

O Emmanuel
Our God has come
To rescue us
O Christ the Lord
Our God with us
Forevermore

Jesus from Nazareth
Lowly and humble
Seeing and feeling with us
Like your friend Lazarus
Who you raised from the grave
You shed holy tears for our pain

Hosanna, Hosanna
All glory to our King
