

Same Power

Lyrics by Stewart Fenters, Ella Porter, Ava Porter, Amber Porter

I was broken and afraid and powerless
I was trapped within my sin and hopelessness
I was lost and in the dark and all alone
I was wandering with nowhere to call home

He saw me in the valley of my shame
He reached out to me and called my name

The same power, the same power
That rose Jesus from the grave
Is alive in me
The same power, the same power
That rolled the heavy stone away
Is alive in me

I am found and I'm restored and I am free
I am following the one who set me free

I'm no longer in the valley of my shame
Cause he reached out to me and called my name

I am not condemned I am not a slave to sin
I am not forsaken I'm a child of the king
We are not condemned we are not slaves to sin
We are not forsaken we are children of the king

I set my mind on the Spirit
Now I have life and peace
