Matthew 28:18-20

Find and Follow: Go and Make Disciples

GOING DEEPER

Have you ever been a part of a group that went on adventures together—maybe traveling together, or living together in a dorm room or house? Tell some stories.

- Now picture Jesus and the disciples. Imagine what they were like. Tell some of the stories you know that reveal who the disciples were personality-wise.

Read Matthew 28:16–20, Acts 4:13, Genesis 11:4, and Matthew 16:24.

How do these passages change how you see the disciples?

- Describe the disciples. What words now come to your mind?
- Why do you think Jesus chose these specific men?

What's the difference between the way people saw their "calling" in life in Genesis 4 and what Jesus makes their "calling" to be?

APPLICATION

Which "calling" more closely describes how you live, Genesis 11:4 or Matthew 16:24?

- In other words, are you more like a bucket or a sprinkler?

What things need to change in your life to make you more of a sprinkler?

Read Matthew 28:18–20 one more time, and then pray for each other to live this as your mission.
